

ECO-SCHOOLS

Registration number: 252/89/DB/01 /15.06.2024

ŞCOALA GIMNAZIALĂ "CORESI", TÂRGOVIŞTE, JUDEŢUL DÂMBOVIŢA

Coordinating teachers: CARMEN ELENA NĂSTASE, IONICA PREDA

For their commitment towards Education for Sustainable Development and their ongoing work of implementing the Eco-Schools Seven Steps.

June 2024

Plahas.

Pramod Kumar Sharma
Senior Director of Education
Foundation for Environmental Education

Eco-Schools National Operator Centrul Carpato-Danubian de Geoecologie, România

The Greening Education Partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental the Greening Education Partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental the Greening Education Partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental transfer of the Greening Education Partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental transfer of the Greening Education Partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments, intergovernmental partnership is an independent and inclusive community of practice on the role of education in tackling climate change. It is led by national governments and inclusive change climate change ch